Whether you're spending a day in Wheeling, a weekend, or a week, planning a trip to maximize your time can be a challenge. We've created a self-guided travel itinerary to take the guesswork out of it. Our sample itinerary highlights the best our city has to offer--arts, history, food, shopping, outdoors and entertainment.

8:00AM
Start your day with a walk/jog/bike ride on some of Wheeling's 17 miles of paved rail trails. The east/west section runs parallel to Interstate 70 and features multiple exercise stations and the Hempfield Viaduct. The north/south portion runs along the Ohio River, where you will pass the lovingly restored homes of Victorian Old Town.

9:00AM
Pause for a fresh roasted cup of breakfast blend or a bagel at Wheeling Coffee and Spice, WV's oldest coffee roaster. For a heartier breakfast, pull off the trail and stop at the Public Market, located inside the Intermodal Center adjacent to the Wheeling Visitors Center.

10:00AM
Historic Centre Market
At over 150 years old, Centre Market is West Virginia’s longest contentiously operating market house. You’ll find a wide variety of collectibles as well as a selection of unique eateries and even craft beer. Be sure to sample the famous Coleman's Fish Sandwich! Gourmet Magazine called it the “#1 Fish Sandwich In the Country!”

1:00PM
Oglebay
Over 1,700 beautiful acres of recreation await visitors at Oglebay. Golfers can choose to play any of the three 18-hole courses, or simply sharpen their skills on the Par-3 course or driving ranges. In fair weather, guests can purchase an activity wristband that provides access to most park activities and attractions: tennis, swimming, miniature golf, and pedal boating. For an indoor adventure, explore the Good Zoo, Schrader Environmental Education Center, and the Carriage House Glass & Mansion Museums. If you want a more relaxed agenda, take a stroll on the arboretum trail (which leads through Bissettte Gardens), and find a shady picnic site to relax.

5:00PM
Wheeling Island Hotel Casino Racetrack
All that fresh air has turned thoughts towards dinner, but there’s more fun to be had before your meal! Wheeling Island has more than 2,200 slot machines, table games, poker and blackjack, live greyhound racing and simulcast betting, and regularly scheduled events in the Showroom. After some gaming fun, head to one of the four dining venues located all under one roof. Grab a sandwich or slice of pizza at the Food Court, ample options at the Islander Buffet, dinner with a view in the Terrace Dining Room, or first-class cuisine at the Pointe Sea & Steak.

Capitol Theatre
The Grand Lady of Wheeling is back! Reopened in 2009, the Capitol Theatre has undergone a multitude of renovations, including all new seating, carpeting, concessions and more. The Theatre’s first elevator system allows easy access to all seating as well the upstairs Ballroom! Pre-Show Dinners and smaller concerts/shows make the Ballroom a great addition to the Theatre experience! There was once a time when every city had a market house. Bustling with activity and color, they were rich community places, central to urban life of the late nineteenth century. Today, Centre Wheeling's two market houses remain such places to live, eat, play and shop. Welcome back to the good old days, when friendliness, quality and value were the hallmark of good business. Here at Centre Market, we continue that century-old tradition.
